Marble Brewery Taproom

Nice upstairs pub with NM brewed beers, pizzas, and a large outdoor terrace. On the upper floor, overlooking the Santa Fe Plaza.

San Francisco St. Grill and Bar

Somewhat small bar area with good margaritas, mixed drinks, and 5 beers on tap. Large dining area with broad "American" style menu.

Sleeping Dog Tavern

Pub with good selection of local and imported beers, mixed drinks & bar menu. Their white chile is excellent. Located below street level off of San Francisco St.

Blue Corn Cafe and Brewery

Large New Mexico restaurant with their bar at the back of the restaurant. Good locally brewed beers and an excellent selection of tequilas. Located upstairs.

Coyote Cantina

Nice upstairs open-air bar with a focus on mixed drinks (they make an excellent coco loco from their own pineapple infused rum) and a bit of a "beach" vibe. Excellent guacamole and house-made chips.

Del Charro Bar

Nice bar off further off the plaza with more of a "local" feel. Good selection of beers and mixed drinks. Great margaritas. They have a back room that can accommodate a larger group if needed.
